Practice News

Jean confirmed that the vaccines we expected to be delivered early October and appointments are now being booked.

One of the staff is going to start training to be a Health Assistant.

A new scheme will commence in October for annual health checks the Practice will provide more information once the scheme becomes available.

7

Newsletter

Over 500 copies of the Newsletter have been circulated and positive feedback has been received from patients and other PPG's

8

AOB

Margaret left a couple of examples of a new poster for the Cafe.

A few of the group suggested some amendments, Ralph and Pippa were asked to draft up a version for discussion.

Mr Zaidi said the Peter Appleby's wife passed on her thanks for all the messages of condolence for Peter, but has kindly asked for people from the PPG to refrain from contacting her during this difficult time.

The group suggested doing something in the surgery to remember Peter,. Mr Zaidi will confirm if the family are happy for this to be done - putting a tribute up during the Flu Clinic season, in recognition of him being a founder member and all he contributed to the PPG.

Next Meeting Thursday 10th October
